“Civitarese Matteucci’s book takes on the topic with the depth it deserves. He extensively uses concepts and acquisitions derived from his knowledge of philosophy of law and legal theory and thereby avoids the risk of an understanding that is too dependent on received views [...] The work offers a number of reflections, inventions and possibilities which confirm a fact that jurists and lawyers experience every day - the diverse value of rules - and at the same time helps them to find less accidental reasons for it” (C. Marzuoli, Diritto pubblico, 2007/2, 643-50).

- Civitarese M, S (1997) Contributo allo studio del principio contrattuale nell’attività amministrativa [Contribution to the Theory of Contracting Out] p. 1-222 (Torino: Giappichelli, ISBN: 9788834861448)

“He is the author of numerous studies which have touched upon virtually all the major topics of admin law, with extensive treatment of administrative justice, constitutional law and legal theory ... the monograph Contribution to the Theory of Contracting Out has been favourably reviewed and has become a term of reference for all the ensuing debate, both for the rigour of the arguments and the merit of the theory the author defends” (A. Travi, 2007, from the minute of the national academic committee conferring the habilitation as a senior professor)
